

A RISK TO YOUR HEALTH (in 3/4)

 D A
We'll sell you our pills - We send you our bills
 A D
You better have paid – Before it's too late
 D A
Better make up your will - You're the next one we kill
 A D
We really don't care - You know, life isn't fair

Refr.

G D A
Capitalism, it's a risk to your health
A G D
Profit prevails, profit is wealth
G D A
Pharmaceutical companies rule
A D A D
Keeping the lid on the cure

We'll treat you like pest – We'll lay you to rest
Doctors 'nd pharmacies – Will make you apologies

It is rich folk, my friend – That have plenty to spend
The fittest survive - Yeah, you gotta earn your life

Refr.

Insurers decide - Your claim is denied
If you're in poverty – There's no need for pity

Let the wretched die - Let the crippled cry
Let's get rid of the elderly – It's so good for the economy!

Refr. 2 x